The Sweetest Destination

Thank you for considering this sponsorship opportunity for the 8th Annual California Honey Festival!

Since 2017, the California Honey Festival has drawn record-breaking attendance, with visitors exploring the world of honey, pollinators, and sustainability.

Sponsoring the California Honey Festival offers your business the chance to connect with thousands of attendees while supporting vital awareness efforts around bee health and pollinator conservation—issues that impact us all. Join us in creating a buzz and driving positive change!

Event Highlights

Hosted in Woodland California

Positive community impact by providing a gathering space for families.

Sponsoring the festival supports educational programs and connects brands with a key audience. Our attendance has increased from 20,000 to an estimated 45,000 over the years.

Bee Education Bee Friendly Plants

The California Honey Festival is a free, family-friendly event dedicated to celebrating honeybees and the vital role they play in our ecosystem. Attendees can explore the fascinating world of honey production, taste a variety of locally sourced honeys, and enjoy live cooking demonstrations featuring honey-infused dishes.

With over 100 vendors, a dedicated kids' area, and live music, the festival transforms Woodland into a vibrant hub of education and entertainment. More than just a celebration, the event serves as a platform to raise awareness about the challenges honeybees face—from disease to climate change—while promoting sustainable beekeeping practices and highlighting their essential role in food diversity and environmental health.

Join us in supporting pollinators, promoting sustainability, and creating a buzz at the California Honey Festival!

Sponsorship Benefits

Partnering with the California Honey Festival provides exclusive advantages for sponsors, including:

- High-Visibility Advertising – Featured exposure on the I-5 Billboard, reaching thousands of potential attendees before and during the festival.
- Exclusive Naming Rights – Opportunity to brand one of the three festival areas with your name, enhancing recognition.
- Speaker Sponsorship – Align your brand with key speakers at the event, reinforcing your support for sustainability and pollinator awareness.
- Prominent On-Site Branding – Your name and logo displayed on banners throughout the festival grounds.
- Extensive Print & Digital Promotion – Inclusion in print ads, posters, programs, and our website, as well as advertising in Media News Group newspapers.
- Website & Social Media Exposure – Your brand featured on the festival website, which receives over 10,000 monthly hits leading up to the event. Recognition in our social media campaign, reaching 9,000+ subscribers, plus additional exposure via Visit Woodland's platforms.

By sponsoring the California Honey Festival, you'll connect with thousands of engaged attendees while supporting pollinator education, sustainability, and community enrichment. Let's create a buzz together!

The American Honey Queen Program

The American Beekeeping Federation's, American Honey Queen Program promotes the importance of beekeeping and honey bees to Americans. It focuses on educating consumers about U.S. honey through school visits, fairs, and media outreach. The Honey Queen and Honey Princess engage audiences with presentations on pollination, honey properties, and hive components, aiming to boost honey consumption nationwide.

Leading up to the CHF, the queen visits schools with the mascot BZ Bee to educate students.
